At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 8th day of March 2006

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Her Majesty deems it expedient to consolidate the provisions concerning pensions and other grants in respect of disablement and death due to service in the naval, marine, military, air forces, nursing and auxiliary forces of the Crown by Order in Council in pursuance of section 12(1) of the Social Security (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1977(a):

ACCORDINGLY, Her Majesty, in exercise of sections 12(1) and 24(3) of that Act, and of all other powers enabling Her in that behalf, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:

PART I GENERAL

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Naval, Military and Air Forces etc. (Disablement and Death) Service Pensions Order 2006 and shall come into operation on 10th April 2006.

(2) In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires and except where otherwise provided in the Order, an expression for which there is an entry in the second column of Schedule 6 shall have the meaning given against it in the third column of that Schedule or, as the case may be, shall be construed in accordance with the instructions given against it in that column.

Interpretation – further provision

2.—(1) In this Order, a person shall be treated as being in receipt of any retired pay, pension, allowance or other continuing benefit awarded to him under this Order notwithstanding that the retired pay, pension, allowance or other benefit, or any part of it, is, by virtue of any provision of this Order, being administered or otherwise applied for any purpose or paid to some other person.

(a) 1977 c.5.

(2) Where an allowance awarded under this Order in respect of a child of a deceased member of the armed forces is withheld or reduced under article 55, the member's surviving spouse, surviving civil partner, dependant who lived as a spouse or dependant who lived as a civil partner who has the child under his or her control or in his or her charge shall be treated as being in receipt of the allowance notwithstanding that it is so withheld or reduced.

(3) A condition for the award of any pension, allowance or grant under this Order that a person is, or as the case may be, was, in receipt of retired pay, pension, allowance or other award under this Order or under a 1919 to 1921 instrument, shall be treated as satisfied if that person is, or as the case may be, was, in receipt of any payment made by the Secretary of State with the consent of the Treasury which is analogous to that retired pay, pension, allowance or other award.

(4) In this Order, any question as to whether a person—

- (a) is an adopted child, or is a parent by virtue of having adopted a child, shall be determined as if any adoption effected by a person who at the date of the adoption had a spouse or civil partner and was not separated from that spouse or civil partner, had been effected by those 2 spouses or civil partners jointly;
- (b) is a grandparent, step-parent, brother, sister, half-brother, half-sister, stepbrother, stepsister or grandchild, shall be determined as if—
 - (i) any child adopted jointly by 2 persons who at the date of adoption were spouses or civil partners, or by a person who at that date had a spouse or civil partner and was not separated from that spouse or civil partner, was the legitimate child of those spouses or civil partners,
 - (ii) any child adopted by a person who at the date of adoption had no spouse or civil partner or was separated from his spouse or civil partner, was the legitimate child of that person,
 - (iii) any child born illegitimate had been born the legitimate child of his father and mother.

(5) Subject to article 44(7), any condition or requirement laid down in this Order for an award, or the continuance of an award, or relating to the rate or amount of an award, shall, except where the context otherwise requires, be construed as a continuing condition or requirement, and accordingly the award, rate or amount shall cease to have effect if and when the condition or requirement ceases to be fulfilled.

Rank or status

3.—(1) Where, for the purposes of any award under Part II or III or this Order in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the armed forces, the member's rank has to be determined, it shall be determined by reference to the relevant rank of the member as set out in Part I of Schedule 1 or Part I of Schedule 2 respectively.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this article, the relevant rank of a member shall be whichever is the highest of the following ranks, namely—

- (a) the substantive rank held by him on the date on which he was last on full pay prior to the termination of his service;
- (b) where on that date he held war substantive rank, or paid temporary or paid acting rank which would then have been allowed to reckon for the purpose of calculating service retired pay or the rank element of a service pension if he were eligible for such retired pay or pension, that war substantive rank, or paid temporary or paid acting rank, as the case may be;
- (c) the substantive, war substantive, paid temporary or paid acting rank held by the member on any of the following dates, namely—
 - (i) the date on which he sustained the wound or injury, or was first removed from duty on account of the disease, on which the claim to the award is based,

- (ii) where the member suffered aggravation of the injury on which the claim to the award is based (being aggravation which, in the case of death, persisted until death) as a result of service after the date mentioned in subparagraph (c)(i) of this paragraph, the date of the removal from duty on account of the aggravation, or, if there was no such removal from duty, the date of the termination of his service;
- (d) in the case of an award in respect of the death of a member of the military forces who held brevet rank, that rank, so however that the brevet rank of colonel shall be treated as being the equivalent rank of lieutenant-colonel;
- (e) in the case of an officer in the air forces transferred from a non-flying branch to the general duties branch for aircrew duties, or of an airman re-mustered to an aircrew category, the substantive, war substantive or paid temporary rank held immediately before his transfer or re-mustering;
- (f) in the case of a member of the air forces who, immediately before becoming such a member, was a member of the military forces, and who was transferred to the Royal Air Force for aircrew duties in the general duties branch or for duties in an aircrew category or to the Royal Air Force Regiment, the rank which is equivalent to the substantive or war substantive rank in the military forces which he held immediately before his transfer.

(3) In the case of a member of the Reserve or Auxiliary Forces, the relevant rank shall be—

- (a) the paid rank held by him or, where pay was not in issue, the rank for which pay would have been in issue if he had been entitled to receive pay, on the date on which he sustained the wound or injury, or on which he was first removed from duty on account of the disease, on which the claim to the award is based; or
- (b) if there was no such occurrence, the highest rank (ascertained in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (a) of this paragraph) held by him during the relevant period of service; or
- (c) where the member suffered aggravation of the injury on which the claim to the award is based (being aggravation which, in the case of death, persisted until death) as a result of service after the date or period mentioned in subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, the date of the removal from duty on account of the aggravation, or, if there was no such removal from duty, the highest rank (ascertained in accordance with the provisions of subparagraph (a) of this paragraph) held by him during such service.

(4) Where death is the result of, or is hastened by, more than one injury and different ranks were held when some or all of the injuries were sustained, an award under Part III shall be at a rate calculated by reference only to the higher or highest of those different ranks.

(5) For the purposes of an award in respect of the death of a retired officer who has been recalled to service or otherwise taken into employment as a commissioned officer, the relevant rank shall be the rank in which he was employed, or the rank appropriate to the appointment in which he was employed, at the date on which he was last on full pay prior to the termination of his service, or at any of the dates mentioned in paragraph (2)(c), whichever is most favourable.

(6) As regards members of the naval forces, the provisions contained in the principal Naval Regulations as to equivalent ranks of officers and ratings for the purposes of retired pay, pension or like grant thereunder, and as to the classification of different categories of ratings, shall have effect for the purposes of this Order.

(7) As regards members of the military forces, the classification of the ranks of soldiers set out in the Pension Warrant shall have effect for the purposes of this Order.

(8) As regards members of the air forces, any references in this Order to a warrant officer shall be treated as excluding a reference to a warrant officer, 2nd class, and any reference to an aircraftman shall be treated as including a reference to an aircraft apprentice, an apprentice clerk and a boy entrant.

(9) For the purposes of any award under this Order, a Chaplain to the military forces shall be treated as holding the rank which is laid down as appropriate in his case in the Pay Warrant and a Chaplain to the naval or air forces shall be treated as holding such rank as is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, appropriate in his case having regard to the length of his service, and the provisions made in the principal Naval Regulations or, as the case may be, the principal Air Force Regulations, as to the grant of retired pay, pension, allowances or gratuities to or in respect of Chaplains with that length of service.

(10) Where the relevant rank held by the member is not one mentioned in Schedule 2, for the purposes of this Order his relevant rank shall be such as the Secretary of State shall determine in the light of the available evidence.

(11) The foregoing provisions of this article shall, where appropriate, apply in relation to women members, any reference to a rank being treated where necessary as a reference to a status equivalent to that rank.

PART II

AWARDS IN RESPECT OF DISABLEMENT

Interpretation of Part II

4. In this Part—

(a) in articles 8, 11, 14 and 16—

- (i) “retired pay” includes wounds pension under the Regulations in respect of the naval forces in force before 4th August 1914, or under the Royal Warrant of 1st December 1914, for the Pay, Appointment, Promotion and Non-Effective pay of the Army and wounds pension received in lieu of retired pay under article 1 of the 1921 Order, retired pay at the half-pay rate under paragraph (1)(a)(iii) of the provision to article 1 of the 1921 (Officers) Order and under article 1(1)(a) of the 1920 Warrant and alternative retired pay under article 3 of the 1921 (Officers) Order, of the 1921 (Warrant Officers) Order, of the 1920 Warrant or of the 1921 Order,
- (ii) “pension” in relation to a nurse, includes an alternative pension under article 23C of the 1921 (Officers) Order, of the 1920 Warrant or of the 1921 Order, and
- (iii) “pension” in relation to a rating, soldier or airman, includes an alternative pension under the 1919 to 1920 instruments;

(b) a claim is a new claim where—

- (i) the date of the claim occurs on or after 7th April 1997; and
- (ii) on the day which immediately precedes the date of the claim the member or, where the member has died, the person by or in respect of whom the claim is made does not have an award of the allowance in question.

General conditions for Part II

5.—(1) Under this Part, awards may be made in accordance with this Order in respect of the disablement of a member of the armed forces which is due to service before 6th April 2005 and may be made provisionally or upon any other basis.

(2) An award in respect of the disablement of a member shall not be made to take effect before the termination of his service or, in the case of an officer, while he is an officer on the Active List.

(3) Except where paragraph (4) applies, an award under this Part of this Order shall not be made in respect of—

- (a) noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss; or
- (b) a related condition or symptom if it is accompanied by noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss unless the degree of disablement from that loss alone is assessed as being at least 20 per cent.

(4) Where the degree of the disablement in respect of noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss, or in respect of such hearing loss and a related condition or symptom, is assessed at less than 20 per cent, and a claim for an award in respect of that disablement was made prior to 7th January 1993, payment of any award resulting from that claim shall be made as though paragraph (3) were omitted.

Retired pay or pension for disablement

6. A member of the armed forces the degree of whose disablement due to service before 6th April 2005 is not less than 20 per cent may be awarded retired pay or a pension at whichever of the rates set out in the Table in Part II of Schedule 1 is appropriate to his rank or status and the degree of his disablement.

Gratuity for minor disablement

7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), a member of the armed forces the degree of whose disablement due to service before 6th April 2005 is less than 20 per cent may be awarded a gratuity in accordance with the appropriate table in Part III of Schedule 1 in force at the time of the award.

(2) Subject to article 52, where—

- (a) an award of a gratuity is reviewed on the grounds that, for the purposes of Table 2 of Part III of Schedule 1, it was based on the wrong assumption that the disablement was of uncertain duration;

and subsequently

- (b) the degree of the disablement is increased to 20 per cent or more the Secretary of State may on review award a gratuity in accordance with the appropriate table in Schedule 1 in force at such date as may seem to him just having regard to all the circumstances of the case, being a date not later than that on which the degree of the disablement increased.

Constant attendance allowance

8.—(1) Subject to article 70(4), where—

- (a) a member of the armed forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is not less than 80 per cent; and
- (b) it is shown to the satisfaction of the Secretary of State that constant attendance on the member is necessary on account of the disablement the member shall be awarded an allowance in accordance with the following paragraphs of this article.

(2) Where the necessary attendance consists of frequent or regular attendance for periods during the daytime which total not less than four and not more than eight hours per day, the rate of the allowance shall be the part day rate specified in paragraph 1(a)(i) of Part IV of Schedule 1.

(3) Where the necessary attendance consists of—

- (a) frequent or regular attendance for periods during the daytime which total not less than eight and not more than sixteen hours per day; or
- (b) frequent or regular attendance for periods during the daytime which total less than eight hours per day and attendance on two or more occasions per night the rate of the allowance shall be the full day rate specified in paragraph 1(a)(ii) of Part IV of Schedule 1

(4) Where the necessary attendance consists of—

- (a) frequent or regular attendance for periods during the daytime which total not less than eight hours per day and attendance on two or more occasions per night; or
- (b) frequent or regular attendance for periods at night which total not less than eight hours and during the daytime for periods which total not less than four hours per day the rate of the allowance shall be the intermediate rate specified in paragraph 1(a)(iii) of Part IV of Schedule 1.

(5) Where the necessary attendance consists of continual attendance throughout the day and night, the rate of the allowance shall be the exceptional rate specified in paragraph 1(a)(iv) of Part IV of Schedule 1.

Exceptionally severe disablement allowance

9. Where the disablement of a member of the armed forces is, and in the opinion of the Secretary of State is likely permanently to remain, such that he is, or if he were not in a hospital or other institution would be, in receipt of an allowance for constant attendance at a rate payable under article 8(4) or (5), he shall be awarded an allowance at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 2 of Part IV of Schedule 1.

Severe disablement occupational allowance

10.—(1) Except as provided in paragraph (2), where a member of the armed forces is in receipt of an allowance for constant attendance at a rate payable under article 8(4) or (5), he shall be awarded an allowance at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 3 of Part IV of Schedule 1 for any period during which he is, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, ordinarily employed in a gainful occupation.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not apply during any period in respect of which the member of the forces is—

- (a) eligible for an award under article 12(1)(a);
- (b) is in receipt of any personal benefit under Part II or Part III of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992(a) or the corresponding provisions of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992(b); or
- (c) any benefits similar to a personal benefit under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom which in the opinion of the Secretary of State is analogous to a personal benefit.

(3) In this article, “personal benefit” means—

- (a) retirement pension;
- (b) incapacity benefit;
- (c) severe disablement allowance;
- (d) carers allowance;
- (e) category A or B retirement pension as provided for by regulation 18 of the Social Security (Widow’s Benefit, Retirement Pensions and Other Benefits) (Transitional) Regulations 1979((c) or any corresponding regulations made in Northern Ireland.

Clothing allowance

11. A member of the armed forces who is in receipt of retired pay or a pension may be awarded a clothing allowance at the rate specified in paragraph 4 of Part IV of Schedule 1, where either—

- (a) he is in receipt of retired pay or pension in respect of an amputation and regularly wears an artificial limb; or
- (b) the Secretary of State is satisfied that as a result of the disablement which gives rise to an award under this Order there is exceptional wear and tear of the member’s clothing.

(a) 1992 c.4.
(b) 1992 c.7 (N.I.).
(c) S.I.1979/643.

Unemployability allowances

12.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this article, where a member of the armed forces is in receipt of retired pay or a pension in respect of disablement so serious as to make him unemployable, he shall be awarded unemployability allowances, being—

- (a) a personal unemployability allowance at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 5(a) of Part IV of Schedule 1; and
- (b) additional unemployability allowances for dependants in accordance with such of the provisions of paragraph (6) as may be appropriate in his case.

(2) Paragraph (1) shall not apply in the case of a member who submits a new claim for an allowance under this article—

- (a) on or after the date on which he attains the age of 65; or
- (b) where the degree of disablement is assessed at less than 60 per cent.

unless paragraph (3) applies.

(3) If the member—

- (a) was in receipt of a personal unemployability allowance before 7th April 1997;
- (b) became engaged in remunerative work on or after 8th April 2002 and in consequence ceased to be entitled to a personal unemployability allowance;
- (c) had given notice to the Secretary of State that he had become engaged in remunerative work within one week of ceasing to be entitled to that allowance;
- (d) then ceased to be engaged in remunerative work;
- (e) makes a new claim for a personal unemployability allowance within 52 weeks of the termination of the original payment of that allowance; and
- (f) was not engaged in a previous period of remunerative work within 28 weeks of the date subparagraph (b) applied to him then paragraph (1) shall continue to apply to that new claim subject to the degree of disablement being assessed at not less than 20 per cent.

(4) For the purposes of this article, subject to paragraph (5), a member may be treated as unemployable although in receipt of therapeutic earnings which are, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, unlikely to exceed per year the figure specified in paragraph 5 (c) of Part IV of Schedule 1.

(5) Where, before 9th April 2001, a member was in receipt of therapeutic earnings immediately before that date, any such earnings he receives on and after that date shall constitute therapeutic earnings for the purpose of paragraph (4) until the member ceases permanently to do the work in respect of which they are received.

(6) Where a member is awarded a personal unemployability allowance, he may also be awarded additional unemployability allowances for dependants as follows—

- (a) subject to paragraph (7), an additional unemployability allowance in respect of a spouse, civil partner, dependant living as a spouse or dependant living as a civil partner at a rate not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 5(b)(i) of Part IV of Schedule 1 if—
 - (i) the person in respect of whom the allowance is claimed has a weekly income which does not exceed the figure specified in paragraph 5(d) of Part IV of Schedule 1, and
 - (ii) the Secretary of State thinks fit to award the allowance, having regard to that person's financial circumstances (including any earnings, occupational pension and social security benefits the person receives);
- (b) subject to paragraphs (8) and (9), an additional allowance in respect of any child of the member at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 5(b)(ii) of Part IV of Schedule 1;
- (c) where a child is not a child of the member, but in the opinion of the Secretary of State, having regard to the child's relationship to or connection with the member and the other circumstances of the case, the child should be treated as his child for the purposes of subparagraph (b), that child shall be so treated for those purposes.

(7) An additional allowance shall not be awarded in respect of more than one adult dependant.

(8) No award of an additional allowance shall be made or continued or shall continue to have effect in respect of a child who has attained the child's age limit, unless he is—

- (a) a student or an apprentice; or
- (b) incapable of self-support by reason of an infirmity which arose before he attained the child's age limit and in either case the circumstances are, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, such as to justify the award or its continuance.

(9) For the purposes of paragraph (6)(b) and (c), an award, continuance and amount of an additional allowance under that paragraph in respect of a child who is living apart from the member shall be at the discretion of the Secretary of State.

(10) Where—

- (a) a person to whom a personal allowance may be or has been awarded under the foregoing provisions of this article is eligible for
 - (i) a category A or B retirement pension, as provided for by regulation 18 of the Social Security (Widow's Benefit, Retirement Pensions and Other Benefits) Transitional Regulations 1979, or by corresponding regulations made in Northern Ireland, or
 - (ii) a widow's pension under Part II of the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992, or the corresponding provisions of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Contributions and Benefits Act 1992; or
- (b) a person to or in respect of whom a personal allowance or an additional allowance may be or has been so awarded is eligible for benefit payable out of public funds under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom being benefit which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, is analogous to benefit under Chapters I or II of Part II of the Social Security Act 1975

the Secretary of State may take into account any pension referred to in subparagraph (a) against the personal allowance and any benefit referred to in subparagraph (b) against the personal allowance and the additional allowance in such manner and to such extent as he may think appropriate having regard, in the case of such benefit, to any adjustment which would be made if the person were eligible for the analogous benefit under Chapters I or II of Part II of the Social Security Act 1975.

Invalidity allowance

13.—(1) Where a member of the armed forces is awarded an allowance under article 12(1)(a) in respect of unemployability and has not on the relevant date attained the age of 60, he shall be awarded an invalidity allowance at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 6 of Part IV of Schedule 1.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this article, the relevant date for the purposes of paragraph (1) shall be the commencing date of the period in respect of which an allowance under article 12(1)(a) is awarded and, if there have been 2 or more such periods, the commencing date of the later or last of them.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where a break between 2 periods in respect of which an allowance under article 12(1)(a) has been awarded does not exceed 8 weeks or the break is by reason of remunerative work where the member of the armed forces is one to whom subparagraphs (b) to (f) of article 12(3) apply, those periods shall not be treated as separate periods.

(4) If the unemployability in respect of which the allowance is awarded forms part of a period of interruption of employment for the purposes of Chapter 1 of Part II of the Social Security Act 1975 or the corresponding provisions of the Social Security (Northern Ireland) Act 1975 which has continued without a break from a date earlier than the date fixed under paragraphs (2) and (3), the relevant date shall be the first day of incapacity for work for those purposes in that period.

(5) The provisions of article 12(10), in so far as they provide for taking into account any benefit payable out of public funds under the law of any place outside the United Kingdom, shall apply to an allowance awarded under this article as they apply to a personal allowance awarded under that article.

Comforts allowance

14.—(1) A member of the armed forces in receipt of retired pay or a pension shall be awarded a comforts allowance for the provision of comforts—

- (a) at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 7(a) of Part IV of Schedule 1 where he is in receipt of an allowance under article 8 and is—
 - (i) in receipt of an allowance under article 12, or
 - (ii) in receipt of retired pay or a pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is 100 per cent. resulting from multiple injuries which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, render his disablement so severe as to justify an award under this subparagraph;
- (b) at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 7(b) of Part IV of Schedule 1 if he does not qualify for an award under subparagraph (a) of this paragraph but is in receipt of an allowance under article 8 or under article 12.

(2) In this article, a member who would be in receipt of an allowance under article 8 if he were not in a hospital or other institution shall be treated as being in receipt of an allowance under that article.

Allowance for lowered standard of occupation

15.—(1) Except in the circumstances specified in paragraph (2), where a member of the armed forces is—

- (a) in receipt of retired pay or a pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is less than 100 per cent; and
- (b) the disablement is such as to render him incapable, and likely to remain permanently incapable, of following his regular occupation and incapable of following any other occupation with equivalent gross income which is suitable in his case taking into account his education, training and experience

he shall, subject to paragraph (3), be awarded an allowance for lowered standard of occupation at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 8 of Part IV of Schedule 1.

(2) The circumstances referred to in paragraph (1) are that the member has submitted a new claim for an allowance under this article—

- (a) on or after the date he attained the age of 65; or
- (b) where the degree of disablement is assessed at less than 40 per cent.

(3) The aggregate rate of the member's retired pay or pension together with the allowance under this article shall not exceed the rate of retired pay or pension which would have been appropriate in his case if the degree of his disablement had been 100 per cent.

(4) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (5), an allowance under this article shall not be payable to a member for any period in respect of which an allowance under article 12(1)(a) or article 17 is payable to him.

(5) Where a member is in receipt of an allowance under this article he may continue to receive such allowance if he becomes eligible subsequently for an allowance under article 12(1)(a).

(6) In this article “regular occupation” means—

- (a) where the member's disablement is due to service between 2nd September 1939 and 1st August 1973, the occupation which was his regular occupation before his service; or

- (b) where there was no such regular occupation, or where the member's disablement is due to service after 31st July 1973, his trade or profession as a member of the armed forces on the date that he sustained the wound or injury, or was first removed from duty on account of the disease on which his award is based, or if there was no such occurrence, the date of the termination of his service.

Age allowance

16.—(1) Where a member of the armed forces who is in receipt of retired pay or a pension in respect of disablement the degree of which is 40 per cent or over has attained the age of 65 years, he shall be awarded an age allowance at the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 9 of Part IV of Schedule 1.

(2) Where a member who is in receipt of retired pay or a pension under this Order is also in receipt of—

- (a) retired pay or a pension payable out of monies provided by Parliament under any other Order in Council or any Royal Warrant, Order or Scheme administered by the Secretary of State; or
- (b) any payment analogous to the retired pay or pension referred to in paragraph(a) made by the Secretary of State with the consent of the Treasury an allowance under this Order may, subject to paragraph (3), be awarded at a rate appropriate to the degree of disablement which, in the opinion of the Secretary of State, represents the combined effect of all the disablements for which a payment or pension referred to in this paragraph are payable.

(3) Paragraph (2) does not apply unless—

- (a) it is to the member's advantage; and
- (b) it does not result in an allowance awarded by virtue of this paragraph and an age allowance awarded under any other Order in Council, Royal Warrant, Order or Scheme being payable for the same period.

Treatment allowance

17.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this article, a member of the armed forces may be awarded, in respect of any period during which he receives treatment and as a result of such treatment he incurs a loss of earnings, a treatment allowance at the rate of retired pay or pension which would be payable if the degree of his disablement were 100 per cent.

(2) A member who is not normally in employment or who is retired from employment, shall not be entitled to a treatment allowance in respect of treatment which, if he were normally in employment, would in the opinion of the Secretary of State involve no or only occasional interruptions of that employment.

Abstention from work following treatment in a hospital or similar institution

18.—(1) Where the Secretary of State is satisfied that a member of the armed forces should on completion of a course of treatment abstain from work in consequence of the condition which necessitated that treatment and as a result of abstention from work he incurs a loss of earnings, he may be treated as if he were eligible for such period as the Secretary of State may think fit for a treatment allowance under article 17.

(2) This article shall not apply to a member who is in receipt of a personal unemployability allowance under article 12(1)(a).

Part-time treatment allowance

19.—(1) A member of the armed forces who receives treatment which would be treatment as defined in item 61 of Schedule 6 but for the fact that it involves only occasional interruptions of the member's normal employment and as a result of such treatment he incurs a loss of earnings, may, subject to the provisions of paragraph (2), be awarded a part-time treatment allowance at such rate, not exceeding the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 10 of Part IV of Schedule 1, as the Secretary of State may think fit having regard to any loss of remunerative time by the member as a result of those interruptions.

(2) The amount of an allowance awarded to a member under this article in respect of any period of a week shall not exceed 3 times the appropriate rate.

Mobility Supplement

20.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this article, a mobility supplement shall be awarded at the rate specified in paragraph 11 of Part IV of Schedule 1 to a member of the armed forces who is in receipt of retired pay or a pension in respect of—

- (b) disablement, where the degree of disablement is assessed at 40 per cent or more, due to any other injury which is, and is likely to remain for at least 6 months from the date on which the question of eligibility for a supplement under this article is considered by the Secretary of State (either at first instance or on review), wholly or mainly responsible for—
 - (i) rendering him unable to walk (including with any suitable prosthesis or artificial aid which he habitually wears or uses, or which he might reasonably be expected to wear or use),
 - (ii) restricting his leg movements to such an extent that his ability to walk (with any such prosthesis or artificial aid) without severe discomfort is of little or no practical use to him,
 - (iii) restricting by physical pain or breathlessness his ability to walk to such an extent that it is of little or no practical use to him, or
 - (iv) rendering the exertion required to walk a danger to his life or a likely cause of serious deterioration in his health; or
- (c) disablement by reason of which, immediately prior to the date on which the question of his eligibility for a supplement under this article is first considered by the Secretary of State, on or after 9th April 2001 he—
 - (i) has had the use of an invalid carriage or other vehicle provided by the Secretary of State under section 5(2) of, and Schedule 2 to, the National Health Service Act 1977(a) or section 46 of the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978(b), or by the Department of Health and Social Services for Northern Ireland under article 30 of the Health and Personal Social Services (Northern Ireland) Order 1972(c), which is a vehicle propelled by petrol engine or by electric power for use on the road and to be controlled by the occupant,
 - (ii) has received any payment by way of grant under any of the provisions referred to in subparagraph (c)(i) towards the cost of running a private car, or any payment out of public funds which the Secretary of State is satisfied is analogous thereto, or
 - (iii) has been in receipt of the mobility component of a disability living allowance under section 73 of either the Social Security Contributions and Benefits Act 1992(d) or the Social Security Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992(e) having been deemed, by virtue of section 74(1) of the relevant Act, to be suffering

(d) 1992 c.4.

(e) 1992 c.7 (N.I.).

- from such disablement as is mentioned in subsection (1)(a) of section 73 of the relevant Act and to satisfy the requirements of subsection (9) of that section; or
- (d) disablement as a result of his being both blind (with a loss of vision certified in accordance with article 42 as amounting to more than 80 per cent) and deaf (with a loss of hearing so certified as amounting to not less than 80 per cent) where by reason of the effects of those conditions in combination with each other he is unable, without the assistance of another person, to walk to any intended or required destination while out of doors.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a mobility supplement under this article shall not be payable to a member for any period in respect of which he has the use of an invalid carriage or other vehicle provided under any of the statutory provisions referred to in paragraph (1)(c)(i).

(3) In a case where the Secretary of State is satisfied—

- (a) that a member has purchased or taken on hire, hire purchase or lease a private car or similar vehicle (in this paragraph called “the car”) for a consideration which is more than nominal;
- (b) that the member intends to retain possession of the car in order to learn to drive it; and
- (c) that the member will use a mobility supplement under this article in whole or in part towards meeting the expenses of acquiring the car paragraph (2) shall not apply during such period as the Secretary of State may consider reasonable, beginning on the date of his acquisition of the car.

(3) The death of a member occurring after 22nd November 1916 at a time when an allowance in respect of constant attendance was payable to him in respect of a period ending with his death, or would have been so payable if he had not been in hospital or other institution, shall be treated as due to service for the purposes of this Part.

(4) The death of a member—

- (a) whose degree of disablement was assessed at not less than 80 per cent; and

(7) Where the aggregate amount of any pension, allowance or other grant which might, but for this article, have been paid under this Part is in excess of the aggregate amount of the payments made out of public funds, an amount equal to that excess may be paid.

Pensions to surviving spouses and surviving civil partners

23.—(1) The surviving spouse or surviving civil partner of a member of the armed forces whose death is due to service may be awarded a pension—

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2), where the child dies before attaining the child's age limit, the dependant shall be treated for the period of 13 weeks from the date of the child's death as if the allowance were still being paid and the child was still in the dependant's charge.

(4) The rate of a pension awarded to a dependant under this article shall be at the discretion of the Secretary of State, but shall not exceed the appropriate rate specified in paragraph 1 of Part III of Schedule 2.

- (b) award a personal allowance or an additional allowance for any week at a weekly rate other than that prescribed in paragraph (3)(b) or, as the case may be, paragraph (5), but not exceeding the maximum rate which would have been payable in accordance with that subparagraph had the member died at any time not earlier than 13 weeks before the date of his death.

- (b) that person claims an award under this Part in respect of a period which begins after the end of that relationship the claim shall be determined as though the relationship had never existed.

(3) A pension or allowance awarded under articles 23 to 26 (inclusive) to a person in respect of a member of the armed forces who died or whose service terminated on or before 31st March 1973 shall not cease if that person marries or begins to live with another person as the spouse of that person or forms a civil partnership or begins to live with another person as the civil partner of that person on or after 6th April 2005.

(4) In determining whether a pension is payable to a person as a surviving spouse in respect of any period beginning on or after 19th July 1995, no account may be taken of the fact that the widow has married another if, before the beginning of that period, the marriage has been terminated or the parties have been judicially separated.

(5) A pension or allowance awarded to or in respect of a person under article 28, 29 or 30 shall not cease on the marriage of that person if, having regard to the special circumstances of the case, the Secretary of State so directs.

(6) An allowance awarded in respect of a child shall not be affected by the cessation under this article of a pension awarded to any other person.

(7) For the purposes of paragraph (4)—

- (a) the reference to the termination of a marriage is to the termination of the marriage by death, dissolution or annulment; and
- (b) the reference to judicial separation includes any legal separation obtained in a country or territory outside the British Islands and recognised in the United Kingdom and for those purposes a divorce, annulment or legal separation obtained in a country or territory outside the British Islands must, if the Secretary of State so determines, be treated as recognised in the United Kingdom even though no declaration as to its validity has been made by any court in the United Kingdom.

PART IV

CLAIMS

Making of claims

34.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4) and article 35, it shall be a condition precedent to the making of any award of any pension, allowance or supplement mentioned in paragraph (2) (including any such award which follows an earlier award or which follows a period which, had there been an award for that period, would have ended in accordance with article 33(1)) that the person making the claim shall have—

- (a) completed and signed a form approved by the Secretary of State for the purpose of claiming that pension, allowance or supplement payable under this Order; and
- (b) delivered that form either to an appropriate office of the Secretary of State or to an office of an authorised agent.

(2) The pensions, allowances and supplement to which paragraph (1) applies are—

- (a) retired pay or a pension payable under article 6;
- (b) a gratuity under article 7;
- (c) a constant attendance allowance payable under article 8;
- (d) a clothing allowance payable under article 11;
- (e) an unemployability allowance payable under article 12;
- (f) an allowance for lowered standard of occupation payable under article 15;
- (g) a treatment allowance payable under article 17;

- (h) an allowance where abstention from work is necessary following treatment in a hospital or similar institution under article 18;
- (i) an allowance for part-time treatment under article 19;

- (p) an award of funeral expenses under article 32.

(3) A claim for a pension for a child under article 29 or article 31 shall be made by the child's guardian or by any other person having parental responsibility (within the meaning of the Children Act 1989^(a) for the child).

(4) Subject to paragraph (5), where a claim for injury or death benefit made by or in respect of a member of the armed forces has been refused under the 2005 Order, the Secretary of State may treat the claim under that Order as a claim under this Order.

(5) Paragraph (4) shall not apply to a claim made under the 2005 Order during the claimant's service.

Cases where claims are not required

35.—(1) A claim for the pensions, allowances and supplements mentioned in the following paragraphs of this article shall not be required if the conditions set out in the relevant paragraph are satisfied.

(2) A claim for retired pay or a disablement pension under article 6 or a gratuity under article 7 is not required to be made by the former member of the armed forces if—

- (a) he is discharged from the armed forces on medical grounds; and
- (b) copies of that member's medical and service records are delivered to the Veterans Agency.

(3) A claim for a surviving spouse's or surviving civil partner's pension under article 23 is not required if—

- (a) the member of the armed forces by reference to whose death the pension would be payable died whilst serving in the armed forces; and
- (b) copies of that member's medical and service records are delivered to the Veterans Agency.

(4) A separate claim is not required for an award under this Order for—

- (a) comforts allowance payable under article 14(1)(a)(ii); or
- (b) age allowance payable under article 16 where a pensioner is in receipt of retired pay or a disablement pension under article 6.

(5) A separate claim is not required for an award under this Order of the allowance payable under article 26 where a person is in receipt of a pension under article 23 or article 24.

(6) Where a claim has been made for retired pay or a disablement pension under article 6 on the basis of a particular disablement which is alleged to have been due to an injury which is attributable to or aggravated by service, no separate claim shall be required in respect of any other disablement which appears, upon an examination which is conducted by a medical practitioner before the claim is determined, to have been so attributable or so aggravated, whether due to that or another injury.

(7) Where a claim for a constant attendance allowance has been made in respect of a former member of the armed forces under article 8, no separate claim shall be required for—

- (a) an exceptionally severe disablement allowance under article 9;
- (b) a severe disablement occupational allowance under article 10;
- (c) a comforts allowance under article 14; or
- (d) a temporary allowance payable under article 27.

(8) Where a claim for an unemployability allowance under article 12 has been made, no separate claim shall be required for—

- (a) an invalidity allowance under article 13;
- (b) a comforts allowance under article 14; or
- (c) a temporary allowance payable under article 27.

(9) Where a claim has been made for—

- (a) a surviving spouse's or surviving civil partner's pension under article 23; or
- (b) a pension payable to a dependant living as a spouse or a dependant living as a civil partner under article 24;

no separate claim for the award of an allowance under article 28 or article 30 shall be required if the claim for that pension provides sufficient information for the making of the award.

Withdrawal of Claims

36.—(1) Where a claim for a pension, allowance or supplement specified in article 34 has been made and—

- (a) the Secretary of State makes a request in writing for further information which is reasonably required for the determination of that claim, and that information is not provided within three months of the date on which the request is given or sent to the person making the claim; or
- (b) the person in respect of whom the claim is made has been requested to attend for a medical examination at a time and place specified in a notice given or sent to him not less than ten days before the date of the examination and he fails without providing, within three months of the date on which he was requested to attend, a satisfactory explanation for that failure the claim shall be treated as having been withdrawn.

(2) Where a person who has made a claim for a pension, allowance or supplement specified in article 34, and that claim has not been determined, gives written notice to the Secretary of State or, where the claim was made by delivering the claim to an authorised agent, gives written notice to either the Secretary of State or that authorised agent, that he wishes to withdraw the claim, the claim shall thereafter be treated for all purposes of this Order as having been withdrawn.

(3) The treating of a claim as having been withdrawn under this article shall not prejudice the making of a further claim for the pension, allowance or supplement to which the earlier claim related.

Date of claim

37.—(1) In this Order “date of claim” means, subject to the following paragraphs of this article, the date on which a claim is received by the Secretary of State or by an authorised agent.

(2) Where—

- (a) not more than 3 months earlier than the date referred to in paragraph (1), an enquiry is made in person, in writing or orally to the Secretary of State or to an authorised agent about claiming any pension, retired pay, allowance or supplement for a named person; and

- (b) that enquiry is made by the person who subsequently makes the claim or by a relative of his or by a representative of a charitable organisation

then “date of claim” means the date on which the enquiry is received by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the authorised agent.

(3) Where—

- (a) a person is awarded a disablement pension or retired pay under article 6; and
- (b) within three months of the notification of that award being given or sent to him;
- (c) he makes a claim for an allowance specified in article 34 or a mobility supplement under article 20 then “date of claim” for the purposes of determining entitlement to that allowance or supplement, means the date of claim for the disablement pension or retired pay.

(4) Where—

- (a) a person is awarded a disablement pension or retired pay under article 6; and
- (b) subsequently he makes a claim for an allowance under article 34 or a mobility supplement under article 20;
- (c) but not within three months of the notification of that award being given or sent to him then “date of claim” for the purpose of determining entitlement to that allowance or supplement means, subject to paragraph (5), the date on which the claim for the allowance or supplement is received by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the authorised agent.

(5) Where—

- (a) not more than 3 months earlier than the date referred to in paragraph (4), an enquiry is made in person, in writing or orally to the Secretary of State or to an authorised agent about claiming an allowance specified in article 34 or a mobility supplement under article 20; and
- (b) that enquiry is made by the person who subsequently makes the claim or by a relative of his or by a representative of a charitable organisation

then “date of claim” means the date on which the enquiry is received by the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the authorised agent.

(6) Where a claim or an enquiry referred to in this article is made by post in the United Kingdom and the arrival of that claim or enquiry at the appropriate office of the Secretary of State or the authorised agent is delayed by postal disruption caused by industrial action, whether within the postal service or elsewhere, the claim shall be treated as having been received on the day on which it would have been received if it has been delivered in the ordinary course of the post.

(7) In this article “charitable organisation” includes a company limited by guarantee with charitable objects.

PART V

ADJUDICATION

Interpretation of Part V

38. In this Part—

- (a) “pension” includes any retired pay, pension, allowance or other continuing benefit under this Order; and
- (b) “gratuity” includes any gratuity under this Order.

Administration of this Order

39. This Order shall be administered by the Secretary of State or, as to any particular provision of the Order which he may select, by such other person or body acting under his directions as he may direct, and, except as otherwise provided by statute, the Secretary of State shall be the sole interpreter of this Order and may issue such instructions with reference to the Order as he may from time to time consider necessary.

Entitlement where a claim is made in respect of a disablement, or death occurs, not later than 7 years after the termination of service

40.—(1) Except where paragraph (2) applies, where, not later than 7 years after the termination of the service of a member of the armed forces, a claim is made in respect of a disablement of that member, or the death occurs of that member and a claim is made (at any time) in respect of that death, such disablement or death, as the case may be, shall be accepted as due to service for the purposes of this Order provided it is certified that—

- (a) the disablement is due to an injury which—
 - (i) is attributable to service, or
 - (ii) existed before or arose during service and has been and remains aggravated thereby; or
- (b) the death was due to or hastened by—
 - (i) an injury which was attributable to service, or
 - (ii) the aggravation by service of an injury which existed before or arose during service.

(2) Where a person is entitled to benefit under the 2005 Order in respect of an injury or death, that injury or death shall not be accepted as due to service for the purposes of this Order.

(3) Subject to the following provision of this article, in no case shall there be an onus on any claimant under this article to prove the fulfilment of the conditions set out in paragraph (1) and the benefit of any reasonable doubt shall be given to the claimant.

(4) Subject to the following provisions of this article, where an injury which has led to a member's discharge or death during service was not noted in a medical report made on that member on the commencement of his service, a certificate under paragraph (1) shall be given unless the evidence shows that the conditions set out in that paragraph are not fulfilled.

(5) The provisions of paragraphs (3) and (4) shall not apply to a claim in respect of the disablement or death of a member of the Reserve or Auxiliary Forces where that disablement is due to, or that death is due to or hastened by, a disease other than a disease caused or aggravated by an accident but—

- (a) such disablement or death shall be certified in accordance with paragraph (1) if it is shown that the conditions set out in this article and applicable thereto are fulfilled;
- (b) where, upon reliable evidence, a reasonable doubt exists where the conditions set out in paragraph (1) are fulfilled, the benefit of that reasonable doubt shall be given to the claimant.

(6) Where there is no note in contemporary official records of a material fact on which the claim is based, other reliable corroborative evidence of that fact may be accepted.

Entitlement where a claim is made in respect of a disablement, or death occurs, more than 7 years after the termination of service

41.—(1) Except where paragraph (2) applies, where, after the expiration of the period of 7 years beginning with the termination of the service of a member of the armed forces, a claim is made in respect of a disablement of that member, or in respect of the death of that member (being a death occurring after the expiration of the said period), such disablement or death, as the case may be, shall be accepted as due to service for the purpose of this Order provided it is certified that—

- (a) the disablement is due to an injury which—

- (i) is attributable to service before 6th April 2005, or
- (ii) existed before or arose during such service and has been and remains aggravated thereby; or
- (b) the death was due to or substantially hastened by
 - (i) an injury which was attributable to service, or
 - (ii) the aggravation by service of an injury which existed before or arose during service.

(2) Where a person is entitled to benefit under the 2005 Order in respect of an injury or death, that injury or death shall not be accepted as due to service for the purposes of this Order.

(3) A disablement or death shall be certified in accordance with paragraph (1) if it is shown that the conditions set out in this article and applicable thereto are fulfilled.

(4) The condition set out in paragraph (1)(a)(ii), namely, that the injury on which the claim is based remains aggravated by service before 6th April 2005 shall not be treated as fulfilled unless the injury remains so aggravated at the time when the claim is made, but this paragraph shall be without prejudice, in a case where an award is made, to the subsequent operation of article 2(5) in relation to that condition.

(5) Where, upon reliable evidence, a reasonable doubt exists whether the conditions set out in paragraph (1) are fulfilled, the benefit of that reasonable doubt shall be given to the claimant.

(6) Where there is no note in contemporary official records of a material fact on which the claim is based, other reliable corroborative evidence of that fact may be accepted.

Determination of degree of disablement

42.—(1) The following provisions of this article shall apply for the purposes of the assessment of the degree of the disablement of a member of the armed forces due to service before 6th April 2005.

(2) Subject to the following provisions of this article—

- (a) the degree of the disablement due to service of a member of the armed forces shall be assessed by making a comparison between the condition of the member as so disabled and the condition of a normal healthy person of the same age and sex, without taking into account the earning capacity of the member in his disabled condition in his own or any other specific trade or occupation, and without taking into account the effect of any individual factors or extraneous circumstances;
- (b) for the purpose of assessing the degree of disablement due to an injury which existed before or arose during service and has been and remains aggravated thereby—
 - (i) in assessing the degree of disablement existing at the date of the termination of the service of the member, account shall be taken of the total disablement due to that injury and existing at that date, and
 - (ii) in assessing the degree of disablement existing at any date subsequent to the date of the termination of his service, any increase in the degree of disablement which has occurred since the said date of termination shall only be taken into account in so far as that increase is due to the aggravation by service of that injury;
- (c) where such disablement is due to more than one injury, a composite assessment of the degree of disablement shall be made by reference to the combined effect of all such injuries;
- (d) the degree of disablement shall be assessed on an interim basis unless the member's condition permits a final assessment of the extent, if any, of that disablement.

(3) Where the average hearing loss at frequencies of 1, 2 and 3 kHz is not 50 dB or more in each ear, the degree of disablement in respect of that loss shall be assessed at less than 20 per cent.

(4) Neither noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss nor a related condition or symptom shall be taken into account in determining a member's total degree of disablement if the degree of disablement in respect of that loss alone is less than 20 per cent.

(5) The degree of disablement assessed under the foregoing provisions of this article shall be certified by way of a percentage, total disablement being represented by 100 per cent (which shall be the maximum assessment) and a lesser degree being represented by such percentage as bears to 100 per cent the same proportion as the lesser degree of disablement bears to total disablement, so however that a degree of disablement of 20 per cent or more shall be certified at a percentage which is a multiple of 10, and a degree of disablement which is less than 20 per cent shall, except in a case to which Table 1 of Part III of Schedule 1 applies, be certified in a manner suitable for the purposes of Table 2 of Part III of that Schedule.

(6) Where a disablement is due to an injury specified in Part V of Schedule 1 or is a disablement so specified, and, in either case, has reached a settled condition, the degree of that disablement shall, in the absence of any special features, be certified for the purposes of this article at the percentage specified in that Part as appropriate to that injury or to that disablement.

(7) An assessment of the degree of disablement due to service in respect of noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss shall be based solely on hearing loss due to service and shall not include any hearing loss due to age or other factors which are not related to service as a member of the armed forces and which arise after service.

(8) Noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss shall be measured by reference to audiometric tests, where available, conducted at or about the termination of the member's service and the degree of disablement due to service shall be assessed in accordance with paragraph (10).

(9) Where no such tests were conducted or are available, the assessment of the degree of disablement due to service shall be informed by the earliest available evidence, whether in terms of audiometric tests or other evidence relevant to the level of hearing loss that existed at termination of service and the assessment shall have regard to the relative percentages of degrees of disablement and measured hearing loss specified in Table 1 of Part VI of Schedule 1 but any hearing loss arising after termination of service shall not be included in the assessment.

(10) Subject to paragraphs (7), (8), (9) and (11), the degree of disablement in respect of noise-induced sensorineural hearing loss which is due to service shall be assessed by—

- (a) determining the average total hearing loss for each ear at 1, 2 and 3kHz frequencies; and then by
- (b) determining the percentage degree of disablement for each ear in accordance with Table 1 of Part VI of Schedule 1; and then by
- (c) determining the average percentage degree of binaural disablement in accordance with the following formula: (degree of disablement of better ear x 4) + (degree of disablement of worst ear) divided by 5; and
- (d) in subparagraph (c) "better ear" means that ear in which the claimant's hearing loss is the less and "worse ear" means that ear in which the claimant's hearing loss is the more.

(11) Paragraphs (8), (9) and (10) shall not be applied so as to reduce any award made prior to 12th April 2004.

(12) For the purpose of determining the percentage degree of disablement in Table 1 of Part VI of Schedule 1, any fraction of an average hearing loss shall, where the average hearing loss is over 50dB, be rounded down to the next whole figure.

(13) Where—

- (a) a member has sustained a minor injury specified in Table 1 of Part III of Schedule 1 as well as some other disablement due to service the degree of which is less than 100 per cent; and
- (b) a composite assessment of the degree of the disablement from both causes is no higher than the assessment for the other disablement alone this article shall have effect so as to authorise an award under article 7 in respect of the minor injury as well as an award under article 6 or 7 in respect of the other disablement.

(14) The degree of disablement certified under this article shall be the degree of disablement for the purposes of any award made under this Order.

Certification

43. Where any matter is required by this Order to be certified, that matter shall be determined—
- (a) where a Tribunal constituted under the War Pensions (Administrative Provisions) Act 1919(a) or the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943(b) has given a decision on that matter under those Acts, in accordance with that decision, or, if an appeal from that decision is brought under those Acts, in accordance with the decision on that appeal;
 - (b) where no such decision has been given and the matter involves a medical question—
 - (i) in accordance with a certificate on that question of a medical officer or board of medical officers appointed or recognised by the Secretary of State,
 - (ii) in a case where a pension or retired pay was payable in respect of disablement or death due to service before the commencement of the 1914 World War or after 30th September 1921 but before 3rd September 1939, if a certificate on that question has been given before 29th July 1996 by a medical officer or a board of medical officers appointed by the Secretary of State for Defence, in accordance with that certificate, or
 - (iii) where it appears to the Secretary of State that the medical question raises a serious doubt or difficulty and he so desires, in accordance with the opinion thereon obtained from one or more of a panel of independent medical experts nominated by the President of the Royal College of Physicians of London, the Royal College of Surgeons of England or the Royal College of Obstetricians and Gynaecologists.

Review of decisions, assessments and awards

- 44.—(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (3), (4) and (5) and to the provisions of paragraph (8), any decision—
- (a) accepting or rejecting a claim for pension; or
 - (b) any assessment of the degree of disablement of a member of the armed forces; or
 - (c) any final decision that there is no disablement or that the disablement has come to an end
- may be reviewed by the Secretary of State at any time on any ground.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (4), (5), (8) and (9), any award under this Order may be reviewed by the Secretary of State at any time if the Secretary of State is satisfied that—
- (a) the award was made in consequence of ignorance of, or a mistake as to, a material fact, or of a mistake as to the law;
 - (b) there has been any relevant change of circumstances since the award was made;
 - (c) the award was based on a decision or assessment to which paragraph (1) of this article applies, and that decision or assessment has been revised.
- (3) Any assessment or decision made, given or upheld by the Pensions Appeal Tribunal under section 8 of the War Pensions (Administrative Provisions) Act 1919 or the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943 may be reviewed by the Secretary of State at any time if the Secretary of State is satisfied that there has been a relevant change of circumstances since the assessment or decision was made, including any improvement or deterioration in the disablement in respect of which the assessment was made.
- (4) Subject to the provisions of paragraph (9), following a review under paragraph (1) of any decision accepting a claim for pension or any assessment of the degree of disablement of a member of the armed forces, that decision or assessment may be revised by the Secretary of State

(a) 1919 c.53.

(b) 1943 c.39; this Act was amended and modified by the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1949 (c.12); sub-section (3A) was added to section 1 by the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act (Modification) Order 1947 (S.I. 1947/1143) and sections 5 and 6 were amended by section 23 of the Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970 (c.44). Sections 5 and 6 were also amended by section 16 of the Social Security Act 1980 (c.30), and section 6 was also amended by section 43 of the Social Security and Housing Benefits Act 1982 (c.24) and by the Armed Forces (Pensions and Compensation) Act 2004 (c.32).

to the detriment of a member of the armed forces only where the Secretary of State is satisfied that—

- (a) the decision or assessment was given or made in consequence of ignorance of, or a mistake as to, a material fact, or of a mistake as to the law; or
- (b) in the case of a decision accepting a claim for pension—
 - (i) the decision was given after it had been certified pursuant to article 43(b)(i) that the member of the armed forces was suffering from a specified disablement (“the certified condition”) which was attributable to, or aggravated by, his service, and
 - (ii) since the date of the decision it has been further certified, pursuant to article 43(b)(i), that the claimant was not, at the date of the earlier certification, suffering from the certified condition; or
- (c) there has been a change in the degree of disablement due to service since the assessment was made.

(5) An award under this Order may be revised by the Secretary of State to the detriment of a member of the armed forces only where the Secretary of State is satisfied that—

- (a) the award was made in consequence of ignorance of, or a mistake as to, a material fact, or of a mistake as to the law; or
- (b) there has been any relevant change of circumstances since the award was made; or
- (c) the decision or assessment upon which the award was based has been revised under paragraph (4).

(6) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (4) and (5), on a review under this article, the Secretary of State may maintain or continue, vary or cancel the decision, assessment or award and any revised decision, assessment or award shall be such as may be appropriate having regard to the provisions of this Order.

(7) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (4), (5) and (6), where a decision accepting a claim for pension is revised, the Secretary of State may, if in any case he sees fit, continue any award based on that decision at a rate not exceeding that which may from time to time be appropriate to the assessment of the degree of disablement existing immediately before the date of the revision.

(8) Where a member has attained the age of 65, paragraph (2)(b) shall not apply so as to enable an award of an allowance under article 15 to be reviewed on the ground that the rate of the member’s earnings has, or would, in his regular occupation, have changed since the date of the award.

(9) Subject to paragraphs (10), (11) and (12), paragraphs (1) to (7) shall not apply to any decision, assessment or award made in respect of or relating to the rate of pension or retired pay for the disablement or death of a member which is due to service before or during the 1914 World War.

(10) A permanent pension or permanent retired pay granted under this Order in respect of service before the 1914 World War or under a 1919 to 1921 instrument may be reviewed by the Secretary of State where the person to whom the pension or retired pay has been granted claims that there has been a substantial increase in the extent of the disablement due to the original cause.

(11) In respect of any disablement pension or retired pay under this Order in respect of service before the 1914 World War or under a 1919 to 1921 instrument the Secretary of State may at any time order a review of that pension or retired pay in any case where—

- (a) the pension or retired pay has, by error in interpretation or fact, been granted to a disabled member of the armed forces in excess of the amount appropriate to the degree of his disablement;
- (b) the Secretary of State has reason to believe that the pension or retired pay has been obtained by an improper means; or
- (c) the pension or retired pay has been granted by error.

(12) Any decision rejecting a claim for a pension in respect of the death of a member which is due to service before or during the 1914 World War may be reviewed by the Secretary of State at any time on any ground and may be revised by him as may be appropriate having regard to the provisions of this Order.

(7) Where, by reason of any provision in any instrument which amends a provision of this Order—

- (a) a change falls to be made in the rate of any pension which, by virtue of the preceding provisions of this article, is payable weekly; and
- (b) the date on which that change would, but for this paragraph, fall to be made (“the prescribed date”) is not the day of the week on which payment of pension is normally made (“the weekly pay day”) that change shall have effect only as from the first weekly pay day immediately following the prescribed date.

SCHEDULE 3

Article 46

COMMENCING DATES OF AWARDS

- 1.—(1) Subject to the following provisions of this Schedule, an award or an adjustment of an award shall have effect from such date as may be specified in the award, being a date not earlier than the date specified in subparagraph (2) which is relevant in the claimant's case.
 - (2) The date specified in this subparagraph is whichever date is the latest in time of the date—
 - (a) following the date of termination of service or, in a case under Part IV, following the date of death of the member;
 - (b) of the claim;
 - (c) of the last application for review; or
 - (3) Where in a case to which subparagraph (1) applies, the claimant satisfies the requirements of subparagraph (4) the award shall have effect from the date the subparagraph is satisfied.
 - (4) This paragraph is satisfied where the date of claim or application for review is made within 3 months of—
 - (a) the date of termination of service, or the date of death where an award is made in respect of a member's death; or
 - (b) except where paragraph (a) applies, the date of notification of a decision on the claim or review.
 - (5) Where the requirements of subparagraph (4) are satisfied on more than one occasion and the occasions on which they are satisfied are consecutive, subparagraph (3) shall apply as from the first occasion on which subparagraph (4) is satisfied.
 - (6) Subject to subparagraphs (7), (8) and (9), where an award is adjusted upon review instigated by the Secretary of State, the adjustment shall take effect from the date of the review.
 - (7) Where an award is reviewed as a result of a decision ("the original decision") which arose from an official error, the reviewed decision shall take effect from the date of the original decision and for this purpose "official error" means an error made by Secretary of State or any officer of his carrying out functions in connection with war pensions, defence, or foreign and commonwealth affairs, to which no other person materially contributed, including reliance on erroneous medical advice but excluding any error of law which is only shown to have been an error by virtue of a subsequent decision of a court.

(8) Where an award is suspended pursuant to Article 65(3) but, on one of the conditions specified in article 65(5) being satisfied, the Secretary of State reviews the award, the award shall take effect from the date on which the suspension took effect and any payment shall be calculated by reference to the date which was payable on that date—

- (a) apply in respect of the period between the date on which the suspension took effect and the date of the review, and
- (b) be calculated by reference to the rate at which the award was in payment prior to its suspension.

(9) Where, a pensioner's award has been cancelled (pursuant to Article 66(1) but, following submission of a further claim (in accordance with Article 66(2) the Secretary of State has made a further award in the pensioner's favour, such award shall take effect and payment shall be made—

- (a) from the date on which the suspension took effect,
- (b) at such rate as the Secretary of State determines to be appropriate when making the further award.

(10) For the purposes of this paragraph, a claim shall be treated as made for a pension or allowance for which a claim is not required by virtue of article 35 on the date on which the relevant conditions of entitlement to the pension or allowance first became satisfied.

2.—(1) In a case to which section 168 of the Pension Act 1995(a) (war pensions for widows: effect of remarriage) or article 33(2) applies, for paragraph 1(4)(a) of this Schedule substitute “the date of termination of a marriage or civil partnership, the date of judicial separation of the parties to a marriage, the date of a separation order relating to a civil partnership or the date the claimant ceased to live with another as a spouse or as a civil partner”.

(2) In this paragraph—

- (a) in relation to marriage “termination of marriage” and “judicial separation” have the meanings they bear in section 168 of the Pension Act 1995;
- (b) in relation to civil partners—
 - (i) the reference to the termination of a civil partnership is to the termination of a partnership by death, dissolution or annulment, and
 - (ii) the reference to a separation order includes any legal separation obtained in a country or territory outside the British Islands and recognised in the United Kingdom and for those purposes a dissolution, annulment or legal separation obtained in a country or territory outside the British Islands must, if the Secretary of State so determines, be treated as recognised in the United Kingdom even though no declaration as to its validity has been made in any court in the United Kingdom.

3. Where an award is made pursuant to a successful appeal to the Social Security Commissioners(b), the Secretary of State may make payment for a past period which does not exceed six years from the date of the application for leave to appeal to the High Court.

4. Where an award or an adjustment of an award is made following a decision of the President of the Pensions Appeal Tribunals that the decision of a Pensions Appeal Tribunal be treated as set aside, the Secretary of State shall make payment for a past period which does not exceed six years from the date of the application which led to the decision of the President of the Pensions Appeal Tribunal where the ground for setting the decision of the Pensions Appeal Tribunal aside is that the Tribunal's decision was erroneous in point of law(c).

5. Where a claimant satisfies the Secretary of State that—

- (a) he would have made a claim or an application for a review on a date (“the earlier date”) earlier than that (“the actual date”) on which he actually did so but for the fact that he was

(a) 1995 c.26.

(b) See section 6(A) of the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943 (c.39).

(c) See section 6A(6) and 6B(2) of the Pensions Appeal Tribunals Act 1943 (c.39).

incapable of so doing or of instructing someone to act on his behalf by reason of illness or disability; and

- (b) that illness or disability continued to be the cause of the delay up to the moment the claim or application was made any reference in this Schedule to the date of claim or date of application for review shall be treated as a reference to the later of—

- (i) the earlier date; and
- (ii) the date three years before the actual date.

6.—(1) Where, upon a review of a decision rejecting a claim for pension, the Secretary of State makes an award on the basis that medical opinion has developed since the date of the decision which is the subject of the review, no payment shall be made in respect of any period preceding whichever is the later of—

- (a) the date on which the Secretary of State considers that medical opinion had developed to the extent that an award in the claimant's case was justified; and
- (b) the date three years before the date of application for a review or, where the review is instigated by the Secretary of State, the date three years before the date of the Secretary of State's review decision.

(2) Where the Secretary of State accepts a claim and he is satisfied that the claimant would have made a claim at an earlier date but for advice he gave that a claim would be rejected on the basis of medical opinion, the Secretary of State may make payment in respect of a period commencing on, but not in respect of any period before, whichever is the later of—

- (a) the date on which the Secretary of State considers that medical opinion had developed to the extent that an award in the claimant's case was justified; and
- (b) the date three years before the date of claim.

7. Where a decision, which falls to be reviewed in the light of a decision of a court or a Commissioner in a case to which the claimant is not party, is revised, no payment may be made pursuant to the revision in respect of any period before the date three years before the decision of the court.

8. Where, either upon review of a decision rejecting a claim for pension or following a decision of the President of the Pensions Appeal Tribunals that the decision of a Pensions Appeal Tribunal be treated as set aside by reason of the availability of additional evidence, an award is made on the basis of evidence contained in documents produced by the claimant which were not available to the claimant at the time of the decision which is subject to the review or appeal because those documents were classified at the time, payment may be made in respect of a period commencing on, but not in respect of any period before, the date three years before the date of the application for review or, as the case may be, application to the President of the Pensions Appeal Tribunals that the decision of a Pensions Appeal Tribunal be treated as set aside.

9. Notwithstanding paragraph 1(7), where an award is made under article 6 or article 23 without a claim having been made for it, no payment shall be made in respect of a period before whichever is the later of—

- (a) the day following the date of death or termination of service; and
- (b) the date three years before the records were delivered to the Secretary of State by the Secretary of State for Defence.

10. Except in a case to which paragraph 6, 7 or 9 applies, where a claimant satisfies the Secretary of State that—

- (a) he would have made a claim or an application for a review on an earlier date than he actually did but for an act or omission of the Secretary of State or any officer of his carrying out functions in connection with war pensions, defence or foreign and commonwealth affairs, which wrongly caused him to delay the claim or application and that act or omission was the dominant cause of the delay; and

- (b) that act or omission continued to be the dominant cause of the delay up to the moment the claim or application was made any reference in this Schedule to the date of a claim or date of application for review shall be treated as a reference to the earlier date referred to in this paragraph.

11. Where the Secretary of State reviews a decision which was made before 16th August 1943 and he is satisfied that an award would have been made in respect of a person provided the onus of proof were not on that person and that person were given the benefit of any reasonable doubt, he may make payment in respect of the period commencing on, but not in respect of any period before, that date.

2. This Schedule applies where, immediately before commencement date a relevant allowance or an allowance analogous to an education allowance under article 13 or 38 was payable to or in respect of a member of the armed forces, and that allowance would have continued to be payable but for the coming into force of this Order.

3.—(1) after commencement date, and until the first review, the decision by virtue of which the relevant allowance was payable immediately before commencement date shall have effect as if it were a decision that the allowance, pension, retired pay or supplement under the Service Pensions Order to which the relevant allowance was analogous, should be payable at the same rate, subject to the same conditions and for the same term (subject to the following provisions of this Schedule) as the relevant allowance would have been if this Order had not come into force.

(b) These articles were revoked by S.I. 1993/598 but continue to have effect in respect of cases where awards under them were in payment immediately before their revocation.

accordance with any subsequent general increase in the rate of the pension, retired pay, allowance or supplement to which it is analogous, except where—

- (a) it is determined that the decision which is the subject of the review was erroneous in law and that error was attributable to misrepresentation, or failure to disclose a material fact, by the recipient or someone acting on his behalf; or
- (b) he becomes entitled by virtue of another review to a higher total payment under the Service Pensions Order.

(3) In a case where head (a) of subparagraph (2) applies, the amount payable under this paragraph shall be reduced to that which would have been payable but for the misrepresentation or failure to disclose a material fact.

(3) Subject to sub-paragraphs (4) and (5), an allowance under subparagraph (1) or (2) shall be payable only if—

- (a) the child has attained the age of 5 years; and

(4) Where a child begins or is to begin school before the age of 5 years, subparagraph (3)(a) shall have effect as if for "has attained the age of 5 years" there were substituted the words "has commenced the term's attendance at school in the course of which he will attain the age of 5 years".

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order consolidates into a single instrument the Naval, Military and Air Forces etc. (Disablement and Death) Service Pensions Order 1983 (“the 1983 Order”), which made provision for pensions and other awards in respect of disablement or death due to service in the naval, military or air forces, and subsequent amending Orders.

The provisions in the 1983 Order which prevent a person in receipt of a retirement pension (other than a retirement pension which consists of certain additions) from being eligible for unemployability allowances, are revoked.

Article 53 (maintenance in a hospital or an institution) now only requires deductions to be made from constant attendance allowance and severe disablement occupational allowance while a person to whom those allowances are paid is in hospital or an institution.

Articles 65 and 66 are new provisions. Article 65 gives the Secretary of State power to suspend a pension, gratuity or supplement where a person, having been required to provide evidence or information or to attend for a medical examination, fails to do so after being given reasonable notice. Article 66 requires the Secretary of State to cancel an award which has been suspended under article 65 where the person fails either to provide the evidence or information required or to attend for a medical examination within the period of 12 months starting with the date on which the notice is given or sent to him.

The Order up-rates the rates of retired pay, pensions, gratuities and allowances payable in respect of disablement due to service (Schedule 1) and the rates of pension and allowances payable to spouses and civil partners of members of the armed forces and to persons who lived as spouses or civil partners of members of the armed forces (Schedule 2).

A full regulatory impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as it has no impact on the costs of business.
